—A colored man named Harvey Thompson was arrested last night for shooting with a tempt to kill another colored man. The offense was com-mitted at 7 o'clock Wednesday morn-

-A little black repundrel about 9 years of age was seen yesterday about noon to strike a match and set firs to a bale of cition in front of M. C. Pearce & Ce's shed, on Union street. The slarm was given and the flames extinguished after these bales had their wrappings burned off. The boy was arrested, and will probably be tried today.

About fourteen men (all negroes) at work, and known as freight handlers, in the freight department of the Memphis and Charleston railroad, quit at supper time and "green hands" were put on. The old hands were getting $1 50 per day but wanted more, how much the reporter was unable to learn. The new men are workable to learn. The new men are working satisfactorily.

-The Mirsissippi and Tennessee railway will run a special train to Sardis and return Monday, October 25th, for the convenience of those desiring to attend the grand stock exhibit and sale of the blooded stock. The fare has been placed at the low figure of $1 for he round trip. Train leaves Mississippi and Tennessee depot at 8 o'cl cram.

-The case of the State vs. Justice Hughey was de illed by Chancellor the defendant. Mr. Hughey had been elected magistrate for the Eighteenth District, and removed his office to the city, within the limits of the Fourteenth District, retaining his residence in the Eighteenth. An injunction was obtained restricting Hughey from exercising the functions of a Magistrate in the Fourteenth District, and the court was also asked to compel him by mandamus to remove his sign and to declare the office of Magietrate in the Eighteenth District vacant. The Chancellor dissolves the injunction, which carries with it a refusal to issue the writ of mandamus and to declare the office vacant. The result of the decision is that Hughey can continue to act in the Fourteenth District.
